

Sheridan International Student Photo Contest

At Sheridan, we are fortunate to be a community where we can meet and connect with people from all over the world. We want to see photos from your international experience whether you are an international student new to Canada or a Canadian student who has had a dynamic experience abroad. Give your photo a title and a brief description that demonstrates this year's theme: 'Making Friendships Across Cultures'.

Eligibility/Criteria/Requirements:

1. Must be a Sheridan student enrolled full or part-time in the Winter 2019 semester.
2. Each photo needs to be printed and identified with your name and student ID number printed on the back of each photo.
3. Each applicant may submit a maximum of three photos for consideration. Any size is acceptable.
4. Each photo needs to have a title and a brief description that does not exceed 100 words. This can be submitted on a separate sheet of paper ensuring each picture is numbered to correspond with the description.
5. Photos should preferably be in color, however, black and white photos may be accepted.
6. In order to participate, you must submit a hard copy of the photo to the International Centre along with the application form.
7. The content of your photo should be in accordance with the college's code of conduct.
8. The image may be modified slightly, however the image should not be significantly modified or appear unnatural. You should not (border images, place watermarks, signatures or copyright notices on images, subtract and add elements into images, use artist filters that do not go in line with the "permitted modifications" listed above).
9. Ensure that all the persons featured in the photo have consented to having themselves featured and having the photo published online.
10. In submitting your photo to the contest, you agree that Sheridan College may use it for promotional and commercial purposes without further permission, conditions, or compensation.

Selection Criteria:

Submissions will be judged by a committee composed of Sheridan staff and students. Judging will be done based on the creative, artistic, technical execution and direct relation to the specific topic. The winning photos may be posted on the Sheridan College website or other social media platforms and may be used in print pieces, at events and in promotional materials for Sheridan.
