

Voluntary Indigenous Self-Identification Form

We encourage any student to complete the Voluntary Indigenous Self-Identification Form

- Self-identification is collected for reporting purposes and to help guide institutional planning of Indigenous student support services.
- Proof of Indigenous Ancestry is not required to self-id.
- However, documentation may be required to maintain eligibility for certain academic scholarships or bursaries.
- The information provided here will be kept confidential and stored in a secure location
- By signing this consent form, you will be connected to the office and receive monthly newsletters, updates, and any other form of communication. You can opt out at any time.
- In this Indigenous Self-ID form, an Indigenous person in Canada is recognized in the Constitution Act, 1982, as a person who identifies with First Nations (Status/Non-Status), Metis, or Inuit cultural, and/or ancestry background.
