

How To Report Concerning Student Behaviours and Activity

Sheridan appreciates your concern for the security and well-being of our campus community.

Reporting emergency studentsituations

- Medical emergencies
- Imminent risk of suicide
- Immediate risk to the safety of others
- Weapons
- Violent behaviour

For emergencies CALL 911 and contact Campus Security

EMERGENCY LINE 905-874-4444

Campus Security will escort emergency responders to the incident site.

Reporting non-emergency studentbehaviours

- Verbal aggression
- Social media/online concerns
- Disruptive conduct
- Illegal substance use (alcohol, drugs)
- Theft
- Vandalism

Campus Security is available 24/7 to file a report

All Campuses | 905-815-4044

There are emergency phones on campus which will connect you directly to Security.

PHONE LOCATIONS: Yellow boxes in the corridors and blue poles outside on campus.

REFER ALL AFTER-HOURS CONCERNS TO SECURITY.
ALL REPORTS WILL BE FORWARDED TO SRRO FOR REVIEW.

Distressed or worrisome student behaviours

- Talk of hopelessness or despair
- Feeling overwhelmed or distressed
- Disclosure of personal crisis
- Withdrawn and out-of-character behaviour

Regardless of the situation, do not delay in reporting any of the behaviours above.

Options available to connect students with support

- Walk the student to The Centre for Student Success. (TRAF B104 | DAVIS B230 | HMC A247)
- Refer the student to The Centre for Student Success.
- Refer the student to external supports including: Good2talk (1-866-925-5454) and/or those listed on the Emergency Information link on the Sheridan Counselling webpage.

REPORT TO CAMPUS SECURITY IF THE SITUATION ESCALATES.

Guidance or Advice

If you are unsure and need guidance or advice, please visit The Centre for Student Success at any campus. Student Success Officers are your first point of contact and will be happy to assist.

The Centre for Student Success

Your first point of contact for anything related to Sheridan.
CALL 905-845-9430

Trafalgar	B104	x2557
Davis	B230	x5400
HMC	A247	X2528