Dear Sheridan Community,

As the fall semester draws to a close, I want to express my ongoing appreciation for your perseverance and the commitment you've made to pursuing your academic goals. The strike and its aftermath have posed incredible obstacles for College students across Ontario; in the face of those challenges, learners at Sheridan continue to demonstrate tremendous patience and resilience.

I know that – for many of you – that effort has come at a cost. Despite the incredible work of our dedicated and caring faculty and staff, your levels of stress and frustration may remain heightened. Adjusting to modified courses, a shortened holiday period to rejuvenate, and a fall semester that extended into the winter have, without question, impacted our individual and communal wellbeing.

For that reason, I want to reiterate that your education, individual circumstances and success matter greatly to us.

Applications for the Student Strike Relief Fund will continue to be accepted until April 27. The fund was created to help students complete their studies by offsetting unexpected, additional expenses incurred as a direct result of the strike and the extension of the academic year. For detailed instructions on how to apply, please visit <http://myotr.sheridancollege.ca/strike-relief-application.html>

If you are feeling overwhelmed or have additional concerns about completing your studies, please know that our Student Advisors are here to support you. Please visit the Centre for Student Success:

Thank you again for all of your hard work. I wish you a very restful week between terms ... certainly, you've earned it. I will look forward to welcoming many of you back for the winter semester on January 22.

Warm regards,

Dr. Janet Morrison, Provost and Vice President, Academic
