

A message from Dr. Janet Morrison

Keeping you Connected and Supported

June 5, 2020

Dear Sheridan Community,

As we approach the end of the third week of term, I have no doubt that you're now fully immersed in your studies. What I know from decades of experience, however, is that a student's co-curricular experience – the stuff that happens outside the classroom – contributes equally to satisfaction and success. To that point, I want to highlight some of the programming that has been purposefully designed to support Sheridan's learners.

Stay Connected

There are many ways that you can stay in touch with your peers, even while we remain physically apart:

- Sign up for the Peer Mentor e-newsletter for virtual events, hangouts, advice, a chance to connect with a friend one-on-one, and much more
- Take a picture or video of yourself representing Sheridan, and post it on Facebook or Instagram with the hashtag #SherAtHome for a chance to win $50 at the Sheridan Bookstore.
- Join the events and activities offered by the Sheridan Student Union next week, including: a Netflix virtual watch party, fitness workouts and live yoga.

Keep an eye on Sheridan Central, your online campus hub, for workshops and sessions next week including events to help you build a great resume, our Inclusive Communities "Love and Pride" webinar, tips on time management and motivation, and more.

Know Where to Get Support

If you need support, please don't hesitate to reach out. Our team of student advisors is available to answer questions, provide guidance, and connect you with additional services. You can contact them by emailing askanadvisor@sheridancollege.ca. International students who require immigration advice may make an appointment with an International Student Advisor through the Sheridan International App, or through our online form. Click here for additional ways to connect with the International team.

Financial Support

We recognize that the pandemic has put significant financial pressure on students. In addition to the government and community resources available to you, I encourage you to complete our Online General Awards Application, which will alert you to relevant scholarships and bursary opportunities as they become available. The deadline for the Spring/Summer 2020 application is June 12. Click here to learn more and apply.

At a time when so much is changing, please remember that you belong to a warm, friendly and caring community of learners, filled with people who see themselves as partners in your success.

Sincerely,

Janet Morrison
