

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC)

Insight Development Grants

Subject Area:

Social sciences and humanities.

Applicants are advised to review Imagining Canada's Future's 16 future global challenges and to consider addressing one or more of these areas in their research proposal.

Intended to:

- Foster research in its early stages (e.g. case studies, pilot initiatives, critical analyses of existing research)
- Enable the development of new research questions, as well as experimentation with new methods, theoretical approaches and/or ideas
- Projects may involve national and international research collaboration

Conditions:

- Individuals may apply, as an applicant, for only one Insight Development Grant at a time.
- Applications may be submitted by an individual researcher or a team of researchers. Co-applicants may be affiliated with an eligible Canadian or International post-secondary institution.
- Insight Development Grant funding is not intended to support ongoing research for established scholars, but it does support projects that are distinct from the applicant's previous/ongoing research.
- Proposals submitted by emerging scholars may build on and further the applicant's (or team's) graduate work and/or represent a continuation of their overall research trajectory.
- Projects whose primary objective is curriculum development, preparation of teaching materials, organization of a conference or workshop, digitization of a collection, or creation of a database are NOT eligible for funding under this funding opportunity
- No team members (applicant, co-applicant or collaborator) may be remunerated with grant funds.
- Applicants conducting research related to Defence Research and Development Canada's priorities may be eligible for funding through the Department of National Defence Research Initiative.

Value: $7,000 to $75,000 over one to two years. A minimum budget of $7,000 in at least one of the years is required.

Partner's Contribution: Not required.

Sheridan's Contribution: Not required.
